

15 – 16 April 2019

The meeting of the steering committee was held at VetAgroSup Lyon. The participants of the meeting were greeted by the general director of VetAgroSup Mme Emanuelle Soubeyran. She highlighted the importance of the international cooperation for the school and mentioned that this project is based on the previous cooperation with Ukrainian institutions in the field of veterinary medicine and laboratory practice

The questions discussed at the meeting: report of the project activities during the period December 2018 – April 2019, preparation of the mid-term report, mid-term quality report, work on the development of the project web-portal and distance courses content, work plan for the next period April – October 2019, summary of the work done on the manual and continuation of the work according to the plan, launching of the students training au EU partner institutions.

