

4 - 5 December 2018

The third training session was held at the Lviv national university of veterinary medicine and biotechnologies.

During two days the EU experts presented different subjects related to the laboratory practice: Identification of falsification of dairy products (physical and chemical methods), (AnnaSteciwko-Zielak, WEULS), NMR methods (Nuclear Magnetic Resonance) for food adulteration, (Marco Chiarini, UniTE), Maintenance and validation of complex equipment: HPLC (High performance liquid chromatography), (Robert Gerard, VetAgroSup Lyon), Metrology at the laboratory: calibration, verification what after? (Robert Gerard, VetAgroSup Lyon), Internal audit in laboratory, (Katarzyna Kosek-Paszowska, WUELS).

The participants of the training session visited the Lviv state regional laboratory of the veterinary medicine and the laboratories of the Lviv research institute of veterinary drugs and feed additives.

